New Business:

Public Education Specialist Jillian Meek gave a presentation on the school program and event outreach efforts of the District.

Director Moore talked to the Board about the open pilot position and the open Mosquito Surveillance Specialist position. He stated that both positions were being advertised through AMCA, FMCA, and DACS. He added that the pilot position was also being advertised through J.S. Firms. He explained that 15 applications had been received so far for the pilot position and that it was too early for any applications to have been received for the Mosquito Surveillance Specialist.

Director Moore informed the Commissioners that he had met with Pasco County Administrator, Dan Biles. He stated that this was more of an introduction meeting but that he had mentioned that the District was interested in available properties along US 41. Commissioner Joiner stated that he had talked with a few County Commissioners and they stated that there was 400 acres at the County Jail that were possibly available.
